PENTECOST
 ALL WERE FILLED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT

A fresh perspective on the Sunday Readings
HIS WORD TODAY

By Rev. William J. Reilly

"I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming."

One of the questions asked in the early church was 'have you received the Holy Spirit?' 'We have not heard of the Holy Spirit, how can we?'

We are asked today if we have been born again. Our answer is 'yes' as the Holy Spirit came to dwell in us at our baptism. The Holy Spirit fills us at confirmation. And today we are given the promise, 'he will guide you to all truth.'

We all need guides. When we observe a blind person being safely led by a seeing eye dog, we admire the skill and the dependence. When some heroic action takes place, a rescue from a fire or accident, we marvel at what takes place. A GPS leads people to a destination. Am I able to discover the power of the Holy Spirit at work in me as I live out what I believe? Will I let the Spirit guide me in my decisions, great and small?

The Spirit of Pentecost is present among us today. We ask that we allow it to work in and through us.

Choir and Music Ministry

Music is a vital part of the celebration of the Mass. This ministry shares the faith and serves the community, expressing the love of God and neighbors through music. As we celebrate the Sunday Mass, we encourage and promote active participation by means of acclamations, responses, psalmody, antiphons, and songs; and we have fun! Interested? Contact Nikki (nikoleg@stfrncis.org).

Returning to Ministry

As the parish begins to make plans for parish life post-pandemic and to open up Masses, it is time for you to begin to think about becoming involved and volunteering for ministries. Volunteering at Mass is a beautiful way to share your warm smile and gifts, to grow in faith and serve others.

Lector

God speaks to us through Sacred Scriptures. The role of Lector is to proclaim that Holy Word to the folks gathered at Mass. Your voice tells the stories of the prophets, the kings, the saints, and the early church. Express your interest and reach out to Pequitte (wislady@comcast.net). Young Adult and Teens—be part of this great ministry!

Altar Server

Teens, youth and children (10 years and older)—young adults, too!—help the priests in the celebration of the Mass. This ministry is a unique one in the Catholic Church. You are privileged to play a part in the preparation of the Eucharist. Your participation as an Altar Server is special as you serve the priests, the people of God, and above all, you serve Christ. Interested? Contact Chanel (cmarquis@stfrncis.org).

Eucharistic Ministers

Extraordinary Eucharistic Ministers (EMs) assist the presiding priest in offering the Precious Body and Blood of Christ to the faithful. "It is a gift to be a Eucharistic Minister—to share the Body and Blood of Christ with another," said one Eucharistic Minister reflecting on her experience. This moment is unique because it is both personal and much bigger than the two people. Interested? Contact Chanel (cmarquis@stfrncis.org).

Sacristans

At St. Francis, there are men and women who do the quiet work of preparing for and assisting at Mass. Sacristans care for altar linens, order wine and hosts, arrange liturgical books for the altar, prepare the altar, light candles, order seasonal flowers, and lots of small unnoticed things. Our celebrations are wonderfully enhanced by their ministry. Interested? Reach out to Pequitte (wislady@comcast.net).

Ushers and Greeters

The role of the usher/greeter is one of offering a friendly presence to those coming to Mass, of providing leadership during emergencies and performing such tasks as taking up the collection, presenting the gifts, and assisting parishioners during Communion—always conscious of Christ's words "For I was...a stranger and you welcomed me," (Matthew 25:35) Interested? Contact Chanel (cmarquis@stfrncis.org).

Attention Class of 2021: The Associates of St. John Bosco invites rising college freshmen to attend a College Night at one of the following parishes:

- June 30th—St. Michael's
- July 7th—Nativity
- July 21st—St. Mary's Old Town (held at St. Mary's Lyceum)
- July 28th—St. Mary's Fredericksburg (held at Holy Cross Academy)

College Nights are free to all students and provide resources and support for keeping your Catholic faith when entering college this fall. Catholic student representatives from George Mason, UVA, the University of Mary Washington, William & Mary, Virginia Tech and other private and public schools will be on hand to share their experiences of being a Catholic college student. This is a great opportunity to network with other Catholic students and to receive resources for the transition to college only a few months away. The Nights begin at 7:00 PM, and students are encouraged to wear their college t-shirt to the event! To register for one of the College Nights and for additional information, visit our website at www.asjb.org. Registration is limited to 50 students per night.

St. Francis VOICE and Pre-K Classes

Did you know that just eight years ago, the Prince William County Public School (PWCPS) system only had 8 Pre-K classes? There were lots of private programs for those that could afford to send their children—but not much available for those for whom private programs were not an option. The St. Francis of Assisi VOICE ministry began the initiative, that with the help of many other groups, changed Pre-K availability for all. Today there are 80 Pre-K classes in PWCPS.

Why it's important? The well-being of today's children affects the future vitality of our community. Young children who enjoy positive early experiences are better able to develop the skills that prepare them for school. Children who arrive at kindergarten prepared to learn perform better throughout school and complete more years of education. A more educated workforce, in turn, means higher incomes, more public revenues, and less poverty and crime—in other words, a thriving city that attracts businesses and jobs. Pre-K matters! Take a moment to read this infographic. (located at: <https://www.stfrancis.org/voice-pre-k-matters/>)

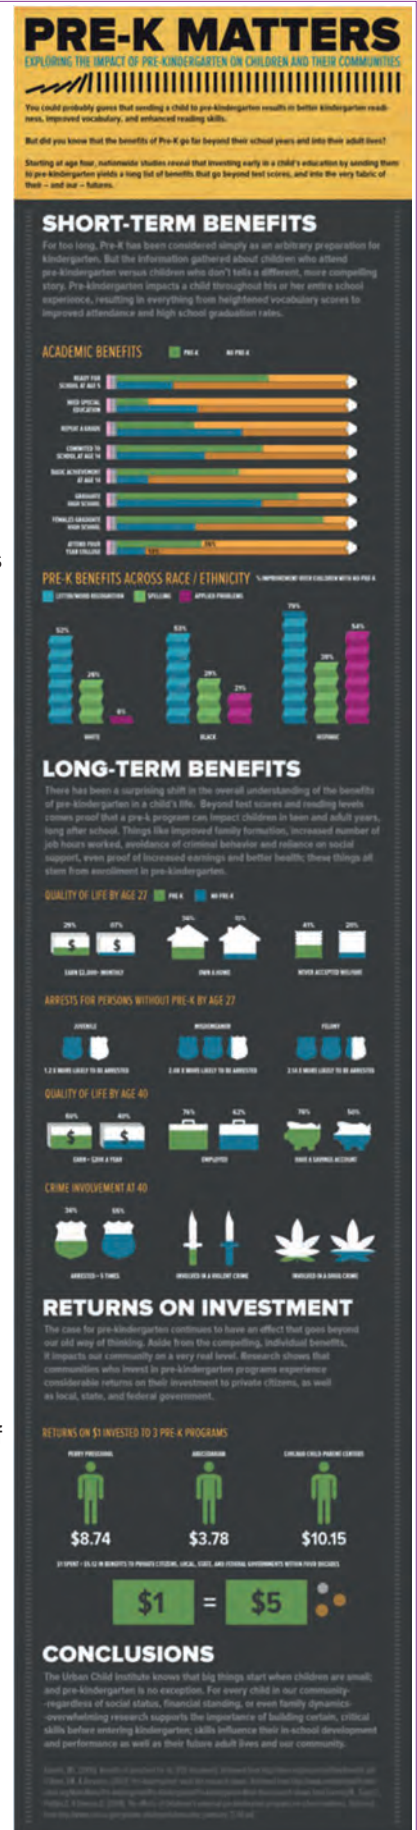

Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." (Matthew 19:14) That meant all the children regardless of socioeconomic status, race, creed, or family history.

Go Deeper: Michelle Nicolai (parishioner and VOICE member): As a teacher of English Language Learners at a Title I school in Woodbridge, I understand the importance of early childhood education. At my school, it is the norm for our students' first experience in a school setting to be in the Kindergarten classroom. For those of you who are thinking back fondly to your Kindergarten experience of graham crackers and milk, followed by story time, things have changed drastically. Students who have not had exposure to literacy activities before starting Kindergarten are being identified at "below grade level" and "at risk" at 5 years old.

My work with VOICE (Virginians Organized for Interfaith Community Engagement) has allowed me to advocate for more Pre-K opportunities for children in my community. To begin this important work, VOICE leaders did a listening campaign around the issue of Pre-K. You may remember, we held such a session at St. Francis on a Sunday afternoon. We listened to parents and teachers to find out their experiences with Pre-K and Kindergarten readiness. After about 9 months of listening work and building relationships with those affected by the issue, we held an action at a Prince William County School Board meeting. That evening, the board was going to vote "no" to accepting state funding to provide 8 additional Pre-K classes for the following school year. These classes would be funded solely with state money for a 4-year period. It was literally "free money" for our county school system. At the time, elected officials were campaigning on the problem of over-crowded classrooms in the county. In conversations with VOICE leaders, it was made known that there simply was not the space for 8 Pre-K classes.

VOICE came to the meeting prepared. We had nine speakers testifying to the importance of providing Pre-K for low-income children in our community. There were so many supporters wearing yellow VOICE buttons in the audience, they needed to open up the room partition in the meeting room to make space for all those in attendance. When the last speaker ended his Citizen's Time comment with, "Please stand if you support a vote of yes on accepting state funding to create Pre-K opportunities for our children," nearly 100 people stood in unity. Needless to say, the school board members voted unanimously to accept the funding and find space to hold the classes.

This event was my first taste of the power of organizing. Something that had seemed a dream nearly a year prior became a reality through the power of building relationships across community members. Currently, Prince William County Schools has 80 Pre-K classes. They also have a Pre-K center, dedicated only to serving our youngest students. The organizing done by the members of VOICE cast a spotlight on the importance of Kindergarten readiness. It taught me that you don't need to be an elected official to create true and lasting change in your community. Working with our St. Francis VOICE team allows me to live out my Catholic faith in service to others. If you would like to know more about VOICE, please contact me at michnicolai@comcast.net.
