Dear Parishioners,

We have once again come to that special time of the year Christmas, when we celebrate the birth of Jesus. This is a time of celebrating the hope and promise that Jesus' life on this earth has brought to all of us.

It is also a time to celebrate with family and friends. Last year that was very difficult to do because of the coronavirus. We are still dealing with this challenging virus but hopefully, with the advent of effective vaccines, we will not have to be as isolated as in the past.

Many have shared with me that we are facing so many, many, challenges in our country and world, and so indeed we are. But as I have shared with you in years past, it is the very Christmas message that gives us hope.

Jesus came into a world where there were also many challenges. He confronted the pain and suffering of the people of his time. He walked the journey that we walk. His life showed us that the challenges and difficulties we face, are for the person of faith, not the last word.

This is the season of light. Jesus is that light and as scripture reminds us, "the light shines in the darkness and the darkness did not overcome it."

This Christmas I give thanks for all of you, as you have been that light to myself and my fellow friars. Your continued support for our parish; your coming together to worship; your optimism despite the challenges that you confront; and your continued generosity to those who are in need, are all examples of this light.

Your generosity was especially evident this year as you donated so generously to the Afghan refugees in temporary camps at the Quantico Marine Corps Base. The generosity of our parish has become nationally known. We were one of the first local agencies (our outreach program) that the Federal Government reached out to, to coordinate aid to the refugees.

I recently visited the resettlement camp for a second time and as I entered one of the large tents, hundreds of children held up signs they had made, thanking our parish for what we had done for them and their families. This was a moving tribute to your generosity, and your belief in the goodness of humanity.

On behalf of Fr. Jim, Fr. George, Fr. Lalo and the staff of our parish, I wish all of you a blessed Christmas season, and God's many blessings in the New Year!

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. John O'Connor, O.F.M.

The Christmas Flowers were donated in memory of the following families:

There is a book located in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel next to the Tabernacle for you to write your own prayers of petition. During the Prayer of the Faithful during weekend liturgies, an intercession will call to mind those prayers in a general way. In this manner, the public prayer of the church is bound to the many prayers of the faithful who live in the body of Christ!

Men of the parish! Looking for a chance to strengthen your faith? As we emerge from the COVID-19 pandemic we want to re-vitalize the SFA Men's Fellowship Ministry. Rather than waiting for the time the parish returns to in-person meetings (hopefully this spring) we will be starting on a weekly virtual basis in January of 2022.

Our goal is focused on bringing together Catholic men to discuss, share, and support one another in our lives of faith and to act and encourage one another to strengthen their faith in Christ to become better husbands, fathers, sons, brothers and friends.

Virtual sessions will include an introduction, short videos by folks like Father Casey Cole, OFM (Reclaiming Catholicism), Chris Stefanick (Real Life Catholic), and Father Mike Schmitz (Ascension Press) and questions/points to consider.

Sign-up information will be provided in upcoming parish bulletins, the weekly e-Newsletter, and on the parish website.

Hearing Assistance Earphones are available for use during the Mass, for those who would like sound amplification. They have been checked and are functioning well. See one of the friars or come to the sacristy before Mass.

December 26, 2021 | Feast of the Holy Family

Sir 3:2-6, 12-14 | Col 3:12-21 or 3:12-17 | Lk 2:41-52

Written by THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Some of my fondest childhood memories are of my dad leading my three sisters and me in song as we made the hour-long drive to visit my grandparents every other weekend. Granted, our silly car songs don't qualify as "singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs," as Paul advised the Colossians, but I do think they reveal that my dad took to heart Paul's advice about family and faith. Paul writes that in putting on holiness, kindness, gentleness, and forgiving one another, we "put on love, that is, the bond of perfection." Whatever we do, in word or deed, we ought to do in the name of the Lord Jesus. Fathers, mothers, and children are to love one another, seeking and choosing the good for one another, and helping each other along life's journey - on long car trips as well as in a lifetime of situations. On this feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, we honor their perfect holiness and love, and pray that God may continue to perfect us in holiness and love within our own families, that we may bear good fruit for the Kingdom.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Three Days? Mary and Joseph couldn't find Jesus for three days! Any parent who has had a child missing for a few seconds understands the anxiety Mary and Joseph experienced in three long days of searching for Jesus. In the end, though, all is well - they find him, and the peace of Christ casts out their fears. It is a remarkable scene: Jesus' parents are astonished to see him teaching in the temple, and Jesus is curious as to why they were looking for him - did they not know where he would be? This event marks a sort of milestone in their lives together, as Jesus has hinted at his future public ministry, and his parents have experienced that first bit of soul-piercing that Mary will later fully undergo. For each of them, love is what directed their actions. Joseph and Mary put aside everything to search for their son; Jesus put aside everything to serve his Father; and they joined together in humble obedience to God's will for them. The Holy Family models a way of living for us to imitate, and to witness to others in that imitation.

SERVE/STUDY Perhaps you have some down time in this coming week between Christmas and New Year's. As a family, choose an activity that allows you to think outside yourselves and serve others. Or make a plan to read the Scripture for each day of the upcoming week; everyone can choose a favorite verse to memorize each day. You may be surprised how often these verses enter your mind throughout the week.

Each year his parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom. After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced [in] wisdom and age and favor before God and man.
