He will baptize

—LUKE 3:16

Dear Parishioners,

As we begin this New Year I have been reflecting on some of the many challenges of this past year, and my prayer for each of us for the year ahead.

There has been the challenge of COVID, becoming even greater now, with the advent of the Omicron variant. We ask ourselves, when will we see "the light at the end of this tunnel" called a pandemic? Hopefully we will, in this New Year, be able to see an end, at least to the pandemic aspect of this virus.

In the meantime we give thanks for the sacrifice and dedication of our healthcare workers, first responders, and all who are helping us through this difficult moment in our history.

There has been the challenge of polarization in our nation. Some have described it as Americans retreating into what is called Tribalism. Individuals finding it difficult in good faith to be able to sit down to talk out their differences, in a way that respects the other. May we as Christians and Catholics be for others an example of respectful dialogue and cooperation. May we live the compassion of the Gospel message.

There has been the challenge of immigration, how to integrate thousands of individuals, human beings, fleeing the poverty, oppression, and danger, ever present in their homelands. May we find ways to responsibly welcome others into our homeland.

Then there is the challenge of truth. Some would ask whatever happened to the moral principle of telling the truth?

We hear individuals fabricate the truth, speak a lie, over and over again, until they can get people to believe that it is the truth. We hear of irrational conspiracy theories that thousands of people believe. Theories that have no basis in reality.

The famous Mark Twain once said, "A lie can travel halfway around the world while truth is still putting on its shoes."

The author Seth David Radwell describes it this way, "Social media platforms today are based on a business platform that encourages misinformation, an economy where everyone can make money by "putting stuff out there" as long as it gets clicks and shares. What makes money is not what is true but what gets attention. Tribal outrage works well as a business model for social media, cable television, and talk shows."

Pope Francis in his encyclical Fratelli Tutti says this, "Lack of dialogue means that people are concerned not for the common good, but for the benefits of power, or at best, for ways to impose their own ideas. The heroes of the future will be those who break with this unhealthy mindset and determine respectfully to promote truthfulness, aside from personal interest."

My Brothers and Sisters, in this New year, let us ask the Lord to help us to be those heroes. Let us be the disciples that Jesus calls us to be. Let us work in our families, our communities, our nation, to bring people together, by seeking the truth.

In the words of Jesus from the Gospel of John, "If you remain in my word, you will truly be my disciples, you will know the truth and the truth will set you free."

May the Lord bless you and your families in this New Year.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. John O'Connor, O.F.M.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

For cradle Catholics, baptism may be the most important step on the Christian journey that none of us actually remembers. Which is too bad! After all, the Catechism of the Catholic Church instructs us that baptism is “the basis of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit.” (#1213) Yes, baptism cleanses us of original sin, but it’s much more than that! We need only look to Jesus to see that. Though without sin, Jesus’ baptism is a turning point in his life all the same. The Holy Spirit descends upon him and a voice from heaven cries out, “You are my beloved Son.” So begins the public ministry, in which Jesus would carry out his Father’s saving mission. Through our baptism, at any age, we, too, become God’s beloved sons and daughters. Through word and sacrament, Jesus invites us to share in his mission by turning our lives over to our Father as we embrace our Christian journey.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Baptism is often referred to as “the doorway to the Church” because through this sacrament, our sins are forgiven and we are united to Christ and his Church. It is the door which gives access to all the other sacraments. (Cf., CCC 1213) At the conclusion, the celebrant asks God to continue to pour out his blessing upon those being baptized, and send his peace to all who are gathered. As baptized Christians, we are now adopted children of God; we are disciples who are empowered, through the wisdom and strength of the Holy Spirit, to share the Good News and help build the kingdom of God on earth. Sound intimidating? It shouldn’t. Each day that we “put on Christ” and do his work, God is re-creating us and making us into something far better than we could ever be on our own. Embrace this faith you have been given and go out and share your gifts and talents with others, confident in the Spirit that guides you.

SERVE Think of something you have been told you are very good at by friends or coworkers – something for which you have been “anointed,” in a sense. In what way can you do something specific to lead others with care in this area, or perhaps do a very particular good yourself?
